

Happy New Year

Dear Members and Friends,
Happy 2026!! I hope each of you had an enjoyable and restful holiday and are ready for a creative New Year. I am pleased to provide the following updates...

Board Updates

We are pleased to welcome Chhaya Deonauth (top right) as our new Undergraduate Liaison. Chhaya is a Theatre and Performance major at the illustrious Spelman College. Chhaya is an aspiring actress and multifaceted creative who has explored the art of acting since she was ten years old. Her recent performances include being a member of Spelman's Noire singing ensemble, Krys in Stage Black (2024), Fraulein Schneider in Cabaret (2023), and her first IMDb credit this year in the upcoming web series, The Self We Seek (2025).

H'arrya Canty (bottom right) has been hired as Business Manager. H'arrya is an MFA Acting candidate at West Virginia University with a passion for storytelling that centers community, identity, and artistic truth. She holds a BFA in Professional Theatre from North Carolina A&T State University, where her training laid a strong foundation for work in classical and contemporary theatre. Beyond performance, H'arrya is deeply committed to advocacy for Black arts and children's theatre, championing access, representation, and creative equity.

BTN's Vision and Values

At the core of our work is a commitment to celebrate Black voices, tell stories of the diaspora, and promote artistry in the theatre community. We strive to nurture creativity, foster equity, and build spaces where Black artists and audiences thrive. Our mission guides our steps as we build a future grounded in empowerment, inclusion, and cultural celebration.
